Insight in the European co-packers market

The European Co-Packers Association is proud to present the second Market report about trends and developments in the co-packers market. This, 24 page qualitative study is based on the outcome of a market survey that was set out under European co-packers.

It provides insights of the trends and developments shaping the future of primary and secondary co-packing, co-making and co-manufacturing in Europe.

It offers valuable insights in the size, structure, performance and ambitions of the co-packing industry in Europe, the value chain, its market segmentation, as well as the competitive forces at work.

The report also compares the results of the 2013 and 2016 survey with each other, which gives valuable insights on the market development in the past few years.

The ECPA European Co-Packers Market Report 2013 is a MUST for owners, CEOs, marketing and sales managers as well as business developers in the European co-packing industry!

The ECPA Co-Packers Market Report 2016 is available at the price of €100,- for members and €150,- for non-members (prices excluding VAT).

Non members who will join the ECPA will benefit from the member price
